

The most exciting new hotels opening around the world in 2022

Our pick of the most anticipated hotel openings, from Sardinia to Utah

Sommerro, Oslo, Norway

Opening in September 2022

The rebirth of a restored 1930s landmark in Frogner, a historic neighbourhood in Oslo's West End, Sommerro is a celebration of Norwegian design and the city's first hotel in an original Art Deco building. As the country's largest-ever preservation project, this member of Preferred Hotels & Resorts occupies the former headquarters of electrical company, Oslo Lysverker, and is set to become a modern tribute to local cultural heritage. The 231-room hotel will offer four restaurants, three bars, a 100-seat gilded theatre, a sprawling wellness paradise and Oslo's first year-round rooftop pool, sauna, terrace, and restaurant.

CHECK AVAILABILITY